

OGC HAS REVIEWED.

Proposal for Legislation to Provide Allowances to Agency Officers and Employees for Education of Minor Dependents

A new subsection is added at the end of section 4 of the Act of June 20, 1949 (63 Stat. 208) as follows:

"(c) The Agency shall, under such regulations as the head of the Agency may prescribe, pay an allowance to assist an officer or employee of the Agency at a permanent station outside the United States to provide for the elementary and secondary education of a minor dependent accompanying such officer or employee. Such allowance shall be designed to equalize the cost of education of such minor dependents to expense of education at public schools for children in the United States based on cost factors in such locations as the head of the Agency deems appropriate. Such allowance may include tuition, board and room, correspondence courses and related costs; and transportation to and from the nearest locality where a generally equivalent course is available."

Proposal for Legislation to Provide Liberalized Retirement System for Agency Officers and Employees

Section 9 of the Act of June 20, 1949 (63 Stat. 208) is hereby repealed and the following substituted therefor:

"Sec. 9(a) Notwithstanding the provisions of the Act of July 3, 1926, c. 801, § 1, (44 Stat. 904... August 25, 1949, c. 511 § 1; 63 Stat. 663) (5 U.S.C. 691 et seq.), any officer or employee of the Central Intelligence Agency who is at least fifty years of age and has rendered twenty years service, including extra-service credits as hereinafter described, may on his own application and with the consent of the head of the Agency be retired. Each year of service abroad shall lower the voluntary retirement age six months. Each year of service at an unhealthful post shall lower the voluntary retirement age eight months. Reducing for either cause shall not reduce the amount of annuity received. In computing years of service, the following extra-service credits shall be allowed for those officers and employees who have performed assignments outside the United States:

(1) For each year of service abroad, the officer or employee shall receive credit for one and one half years of service under the retirement act.

(2) For each year of service in places established by the head of the Agency or other appropriate authority to be unhealthful, the officer or employee shall receive credit for two years of service."

Proposal for Legislation that CIA be Exempted from the Performance
Rating Act of 1950

A new subsection is added at the end of section 9 of the Act of June 20, 1949 (63 Stat. 208) as follows:

"(b) The Central Intelligence Agency is hereby exempted from the provisions of the Act of September 30, 1950, 64 Stat. 1098, 5 U.S.C. 1121, 2001-2007."

Proposal for Legislation to Assure that Continuing Protection of the Missing Persons' Act is provided for Officers and Employees of the Agency

A new subsection is added at the end of section 9 of the Act of June 20, 1949, (63 Stat. 208) as follows:

"(c) Regardless of the fact that the Act of April 4, 1953, c.17 § 1(f), (67 Stat. 201, 50 App. U.S.C. 1001-1005) cited as the 'Missing Persons' Act" may lapse, be repealed or otherwise terminate, the provisions of said act shall remain in full force and effect with regard to all officers and employees of the Central Intelligence Agency. The head of the Agency shall prescribe appropriate rules and regulations for the administration, determination and other matters required thereunder."

Explanatory note -

Technical requirements of legislative drafting may require elaboration of the above with full statement of the provisions referred to. The above, however, would be the simplest way of wording the legislation.

Proposal for Legislation to Provide "Home Leave" Benefits to Agency Officers and Employees

Subsection 5(a)(3)(A) of the Act of June 20, 1949 (63 Stat. 208) is amended to read as follows:

"(3)(A) Order to the United States or its Territories and possessions on leave provided for in subsection (c) of this section every officer and employee of the Central Intelligence Agency who was a resident of the United States or its Territories and possessions at the time of employment, upon completion of two years' continuous service abroad or as soon as possible thereafter."

A new subsection is added at the end of section 5 of the Act of June 20, 1949 (63 Stat. 208) as follows:

"(c) Officers and employees of the Central Intelligence Agency may be granted leave of absence, without regard to any other leave which may be granted such officer and employee by any other act, for use in the United States, its Territories or possessions, at a rate equivalent to one week for each four months of service outside the several States and the District of Columbia. Such leave may be accumulated for future use without regard to the limitations contained in any other law but no such leave which is not used shall be made the basis for any terminal leave or lump-sum payment."